Pepperidge Tree

Across the lawn, away from the house the broad pepperidge tree with glacial granite, erratic benches waiting around the thick gray trunk

Leathery leaves move in atmospheric time tint the shade as spring fresh green moves through rich summer darkness into fall's rosy chill

Stately tree, too big to climb shelters contemplation hard rock giving solid cues for meditation's end

Closed eyes sense the changes in airy glissandos of call and response shaping the daily weather report

Lean back against the tree as leaves jam with birds on the wind add your musical thoughts to leaf whispered layers, sit in on their duet Soloing with heart's desire listen to the perfect audience as leaves roar approval and the birds join in
